

Acquisition of NAC Divisions

A DIVISION OF:

ETI acquires "NAC Divisions" an engineered life safety systems integration company established in 1962 based out of Chambersburg, PA

Eastern Time, Inc. is pleased to announce that as of September 1st 2021 we have finalized a strategic acquisition of NAC Divisions in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

NAC Divisions is an engineered life safety systems company that has provided installation and service for commercial buildings in the greater Chambersburg area since 1962.

As a division of ETI, they will continue to offer a wide range of solutions for fire alarm, access control, video surveillance, intrusion detection, nurse call and central station monitoring services. During the transition period, their project management and technician teams will continue providing exceptional service to all new and existing customers.

The core product lines include the same reputable vendors that ETI has been supporting for the last 40 years including;

We are excited to welcome the NAC Divisions staff into the ETI family and look forward to continued support and growth of our collective customer base in the Western Pennsylvania market through this strategic acquisition.
